

A Day at U3A!

Senior's Day at U3A Toowoomba

Come and experience life as a U3A Member! Join us for a special day to discover everything U3A Toowoomba has to offer.

Date: Thursday October 30th Time: 10:00AM – 3.00PM

Location: Philharmonic Performance Complex, 7 Matthews Street, Harristown

What to Expect:

- Learn about a range of U3A courses.
- Explore free sessions in:
- Ancient Egypt – 10.15 -11am with Bruce Arthur
- Circle Dancing – 10.15 – 11am with Michael Rooke
- Shakespeare – 11.30am – 12.30pm with Peter Bevan
- Guitar Intermediate – 2pm – 3pm with Nette Hilton

Limit of 20 visitors per class group

Guest Speakers:

- Nancy A. Pachana, Ph.D., FAPS, FASSA, Lead, UQ Age Friendly University Initiative, Professor of Clinical Geropsychology, The University of Queensland
- Jenna Buckley, TRC Principal Disaster Management and member of the Rural Fire Service.
- Haidee Janetzki, President, The Toowoomba Philharmonic Society. Might get to enjoy a song or two!
- Graham Blackman, "An afternoon of Australian exceptionalism" (short presentation covers what we have lost of our history).

Light refreshments provided

Bring a friend, meet new people, and experience learning, fun, and friendship – every day of the week!

To RSVP your place please contact our office on 4687 7659

or click the link

u3atoowoomba.au/seniorsday